About J50 Brass

J50 Brass is a flexible brass ensemble providing unique musical entertainment for your event. The core ensemble is in the form of a brass quintet; 2 trumpets, horn, trombone and tuba. The ensemble is unique in it's ability to play in almost every style of music imaginable, from classical to jazz to pop to folk. The quintet also adapts brilliantly to it's surrounding providing a soft background ambiance for those intimate events and equally providing big bold sounds for when the party is in full swing.

The set up is compact, taking up little space, and smart and presentable. Being an acoustic act there are no electronic issues to take place and it's easy to move locations, if this was required. We just get the instruments out of the case and are ready to go.

J50 brass perform in every style going. We have a huge selection of traditional and jazz numbers in our repertoire. Along side this we have all the famous classical numbers, theme tunes, novelty items, wedding repertoire and pop and rock numbers. J50 brass also offer a musical arrangement service if required. If there is a tune that you really want for your event, and it's not in our repertoire list, please contact with the details of the music and we will send a quote for the service. Please allow at least a months notice before the event to make a request.

What J50 brass provides is a tailored service with the life, soul and enthusiasm of a fresh and vibrant ensemble, the talent of London's top performing trained musicians and the experience to put on a slick and polished show.

Who are we? What have we done?

J50 brass formed in 2008 and have been performing music at the highest level ever since. J50 Brass have regularly performed for BBC Haymarket Events including residencies at the BBC Gardeners World Live and BBC Good Food Show at the NEC. We have performed extensively for Canary Wharf Entertainments at summer events, spring serenades and the Fun Runs. Other corporate engagements include the Big Brew Up, Royal Albert Hall Christmas spectacular and many private events.

Recital engagements have seen the quintet perform a series of concerts across Denmark, as part of an international tour, LSO. St. Luke's summer concerts, Blackheath Halls and many other concert series across London where the group premiers their own arrangements.

Our most regular engagements come in private functions. Including Weddings, parties of all descriptions, Fetes, fanfares and graduation ceremonies.

About the musicians

J50 Brass is a quintet of London's top brass musicians that can be augmented to suit. We are lucky to have some of the countries finest talents as our colleagues and friends. All the performers are trained at London's top music conservatoires and are now busy freelance musicians. When not playing for J50 Brass they can be found performing for, and have worked with, the countries leading ensembles. Including the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, BBC Philharmonic, Royal Ballet, Camerata of London, Southern Pro Musica, Pro Arte Orchestra, West-end musicals and other fine chamber ensembles.
